DETAILED ACTION

The examiner acknowledges a submission of the amendment filed on 2/1/2006.

The amendments to claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, 13, 18, 19, 24, 25, 27, 30, 32, 34, 40, 42, 46, 47, 50, 51, 53, 54, 57, 58, 60, and 61 & cancellation of claims 14-16, 44, 45, 48, 49, 52, 55, 56, 59, and 62-69 are accepted.

Response to Amendment

The previously made claim objection to claims 2, 12, 25, and 32 has been withdrawn in view of the amendments to those claims.

Applicant's arguments in regard to the 112, second paragraph rejection of claims 6, 11, 18, 23, 28, 29, 31, & 38 (See Remarks, Pages 15-16) have been fully considered and are persuasive. The previously made 112, second paragraph rejection has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13, 17-43, 46, 47, 50, 51, 53, 54, 57, 58, 60, and 61 are allowable.

In regard to Claims 1-12, 25-39, 40-41

Claims 1, 25, & 40 recite the limitation of an electrically powered motor with a controller for preventing startup wherein power is applied to the device when the device is initially electrically connected to a power source and uses the controller to fire an electric switch to couple the motor to one side of the power source at an insufficient level preventing the motor to rotate.

Barthel et al. (US 4,466,040) teaches providing a motor with insufficient power for the motor to function (See Abstract) when the motor control switch is on and the device is initially plugged in and further teaches an electronic valve read on by a triac (66) and Bradus teaches using a microcontroller to control a motor and providing speed control at low conduction angles to a triac to control the motor (See Abstract and Column 5, Lines 54-66) however prior art fails to teach using a controller to fire an electric switch coupled to a motor to couple the motor to one side of a power source at a level insufficient for the motor to rotate.

In regard to Claims 13 & 17-24

Claim 13 was amended to include the limitations of claims 14 & 15, which were indicated as allowable, for reasons provided in the previous office action, if re-written to include the limitations of the independent claim.

In regard to Claims 42, 43, 46, & 47

Claim 42 was amended to include the limitations of claim 45, which were indicated as allowable, for reasons provided in the previous office action, if re-written to include the limitations of the independent claim.

Art Unit: 2836

In regard to Claims 50, 51, 53, & 54

Claim 50 was amended to include the limitations of claim 52, which where indicated as allowable, for reasons provided in the previous office action, if re-written to include the limitations of the independent claim.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
